The Giambri Story

Giambri's Quality Sweets® was founded in 1942 by James Giambri. Born and raised in Italy, James immigrated to the United States in 1900. While his brother opened a grocery store, James decided to go into the candy industry in 1915. James built his company on hard work and quality, crafting each piece of delicious candy by hand. From caramels and coconut to candy canes and chocolate straws, James's candy was an instant hit. James opened his factory and retail store in Philadelphia. The company was run with the help of his wife Mary and sister Giovanina until 1971 when James retired at the age of 74. The company was then handed down to his nephew Anthony Giambri, Sr., the second generation.

Anthony relocated the company across the river and opened a small, temporary store front in Collingswood, NJ. In 1972, he purchased our current location in Clementon, NJ. Following in the family tradition, Anthony continued to make delicious, homemade candy with his wife Josephine and five sons, Anthony, Joe, Sal, Matt, and Dave. At one point in the late '70s, Giambri's had five retail locations in South Jersey. After a fire in 1979, the Clementon factory was rebuilt, adding a second story to accommodate increasing production. Tragically, Anthony passed away in 1980, leaving his wife and five sons to run the business.

Today, Dave Giambri, the third generation, owns and operates Giambri's Quality Sweets® with the help of his wife Patty, three children, Brielle, Sammi, and David, and a dedicated staff. Other family members also help when needed. In 1999, Giambri's began wholesaling its line of gourmet Belgian chocolate specialties including chocolate covered pretzels and caramel filled waffles. In 2001, a division was added to repackaging bulk candies. In 2011, we installed solar panels at our factory to produce our candy with clean energy. Not much else has changed, however. Our superior candy is still made with James's original recipes, and the best, freshest ingredients. While we continually strive for innovation and development at Giambri's, a tradition of family and quality, as well as you, our customers, is what has led to our sweet success.
